Quick Quotes

Q. One's in the books. How would you sum up the week?

LUDVIG ABERG: Yeah, it was fun. Can't wait for the next one. But obviously I'm pleased with how I played. Pleased with how I finished today especially. Obviously, as a competitor it's always stuff that you want to improve on and that stuff. But it was cool. It was fun. Obviously a lot of new experiences and a lot of new, with the whole new environment. But I really enjoyed it and looking forward to the next one.

Q. Did you have any specific goals for this week?

LUDVIG ABERG: It's hard to, I think it's hard to pinpoint like a result-based goal. I think as long as I felt confident with the stuff that I'm working on and the preparation that I did, I feel like that's all I can do and then kind of see where that takes me. But obviously as a competitor you want to play as good as you can and beat a few of the guys, at least.

Q. Did you feel like you settled more into being a PGA TOUR golfer as the week went on?

LUDVIG ABERG: Good question. I think it's going to take me some time to get used to that. But, yeah, I feel like I'm playing decent, I'm playing well. I feel like I like being here and I feel like I fit in here. So I'm really looking forward to the next couple events, yeah.

Q. Did you have any memorable experiences or memorable encounters or anything like that over the last few days?

LUDVIG ABERG: I think the first two rounds that I played together with Matt and Tyrrell was a lot of fun. It was cool to meet those guys and talk to them and just hang around. Because those are the people that I grew up watching on TV and that kind of stuff, too. So it's just cool to be a part of it now and hopefully I'll be able to continue to play some good golf.

Q. They had a lot of really nice things to say about you and were really glad that you were a European. Did you talk about the Ryder Cup?

LUDVIG ABERG: No, we didn't really talk about it. I think they got their plates full with other stuff going on and I didn't want to bother them, really. But we'll kind of see what's going on.

Q. Did you have fun this week?

LUDVIG ABERG: Oh, a lot of fun.
