GOLF TOWN PLAYERS TOUR TRUCK ACTIVATION

Golf Canada and Golf Town announced a multi-year extension of their partnership that will see Canada's largest golf specialty retailer remain an official partner of the CPKC Women's Open. This year, Golf Town is excited to build on its existing activations, with the debut of its state-of-the-art Players Tour Truck on-site near the practice area at Earl Grey. The tour truck will provide access to elevated professional fittings and club services and help to consolidate LPGA Tour player equipment needs during tournament week. CPKC HAS HEART CAMPAIGN TO BENEFIT ALBERTA CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL FOUNDATION

CPKC will once again leave a meaningful legacy in the host community through its CPKC Has Heart program. The official charitable partner of the 2024 CPKC Women's Open is Alberta Children's Hospital Foundation. Last year, CPKC raised nearly $3.5 million for children's heart health with donations of $2.9 million to the BC Children's Hospital Foundation and $580,000 to the Royal Inland Hospital (PIH) Foundation. Since 2014, this tournament, which is the marquee event of the CPKC Has Heart community investment program, has helped raise over $19 million to support cardiac research, equipment and care across North America. Donations can be made at cpkcwomensopen.com with all funds raised matched by CPKC. For more information, please
